

I walk with Bahati, Alex, Yaneth...and Suzan!

Take part in a sponsored run and show your solidarity with people like Bahati Mshani (Tanzania), Alex Ip Hon Ho (Hong Kong), Yaneth Rojas Salas (Costa Rica) and Suzan Mark (Nigeria). Choose the person you want to support. The Women and Gender Desk asks you to walk with Suzan Mark. The theologian is head of the women's association at the Church of the Brethren in Nigeria (EYN), a partner church of Mission 21. Suzan Mark is especially involved with the rights of women.

How does it work?

- Register as a runner through the online or printed registration form. Choose the person you want to support in the dropdown menu.
- Contact people to donate an amount of money per kilometre you walk.
- Download the sheet from our website or use the printed form. Insert the names of your sponsors and the amount of money they want to donate per kilometre.
- Put on the T-shirt «I walk with...» or attach the button on your T-shirt. Walk or run alone or in a group, at your own pace and at the time of your choosing.
- Take a selfie while walking, showing your T-shirt or button and send it to us or share it with others on Facebook or Twitter under #iwalkwith.
- After completing your walk, collect the money from your sponsors and transfer the money to Mission 21.

The sponsored run «I walk with...» is an activity of the Women and Gender Desk of Mission 21 within the framework of the 2017 campaign: «Wanted: Reformers of today.» The proceeds go to educational project in Tanzania, Hong Kong and Costa Rica. If you walk with Suzan Mark, you support the project «Offering Education, Opening Up New Perspectives» for women in Nigeria.
