

Who are we?

young@mission21 offers young adults worldwide the opportunity to connect and to actively promote engagement for sustainable development. Our organisation, Mission 21, is active in 15 countries across Africa, Asia and Latin America in the fields of international and interreligious cooperation.

Youth Ambassador programme

The International Youth Ambassador Programme provides young adults (18–30 years old) from Switzerland, Africa, Asia, and Latin America with a unique opportunity to transcend cultural boundaries and collaborate on pressing global issues. By working together, the Youth Ambassadors not only deepen their understanding of diverse cultures but also develop practical solutions to relevant challenges. The Youth Ambassador Programme aims at fostering an international community of young adults who are actively engaged in promoting peace, justice, and environmental sustainability. This programme seeks to empower these youth ambassadors to become catalysts for positive change in their respective communities and beyond.

Key elements of the programme:

Start: January 2027 – Online

End: May 2028 – Online

Summer 2027: Study trip to Switzerland

January 2028: Study trip to partner organisation
(timeline on second page)

All participants that accomplish the main requirements of participation will receive an accredited certificate.

Further contents: Discussions, exercises, reflections on global themes such as intercultural and transcultural competences, the role of religion worldwide, decolonisation, international cooperation & humanitarian aid, gender equality and more. Most of it online.

How to participate?

You can find further content information, the conditions of participation, application form and deadlines in this e-mail. Important dates and deadlines are also shared on our Instagram and Facebook accounts, where you can also see pictures and videos of the previous years.
